From Our President... A Note

Oh, wow, where did 2017 go? Looking back, it was a great year for Women's Club. We set a record for our annual auction and had a great craft show. We had fun, educational and entertaining programs and we met some new friends. We awarded almost $19K in grants and scholarships. Not bad for a group that was chartered in 1963. Some of our members weren't even born then!

And now, we are looking at a new year with lots of possibilities. Gear up, ladies! We have opportunities we haven't even imagined. Do not be afraid to fail if you find yourself with new options. And if you fail, fail big. We are women and we are strong and we are capable, so let's get out in the world! We may not find a cure for horrific diseases or discover a lost continent, but we can help our community in many ways. It won't happen if we stay at home and watch television.

Now that I've given my rousing speech, I hope you all are enthusiastic for another year. I'm looking forward to more great programs and events with Women's Club. I don't make resolutions anymore. But I am making a bucket list of everything I want to accomplish in my life. Yes, it includes losing weight and getting more exercise, but it also includes stretching my mind and learning new things. For instance, I want to conquer my phone this year. It can do way more than just let me talk to my friends. And, I want to learn more about my sewing machine. It won't ever let me talk to my friends, but it will let me quilt a blanket for a newborn in intensive care. I guess what I want for this year is to do more good. That'll take up a lot of my time, I'm sure. I hope you'll join me.

Remember, we are at Archie and Clyde's for our January and February meetings. This site is somewhat of a challenge for large group meetings, but we can all make it better for everyone if we pay attention and only talk to our neighbors when no one else is speaking. Maybe we could just pass notes like we did in school.

I'm looking forward to seeing everyone but our snow birds for our next meeting. Remember to respond to your reservation request from Kate Fischer.

Cheers!

Nancy Lybarger

2017-2018 WCN President

Just For Fun Cookie Exchange:

Thank you everyone who attended the Cookie Exchange at Julia Farmer's house in December. We had 14 ladies attend and many cookies to take home! A total of 2 large boxes were also collected of coloring books and crayons, which were taken the Friday before Christmas to the Children's Unit at Deaconess Hospital. They were so thankful and appreciative! Our next event will be a spring tea in April.
